NOTICE TO STUDENTS...

The college buses will not run on July 5. Students who depend on the buses for transportation to the college will need to make other arrangements.

SHELTON'S CIRCLE K

Bobby Miller, candidate for the mayor of Tuscaloosa, will be the guest speaker to Circle K on Tuesday, July 2, at 7:15 a.m. in Room 87. He will speak on his candidacy for the upcoming election.

According to faculty advisor Dr. Bennie Ford, Circle K had a good meeting last week when Mayor Al DuPont spoke on the change of the city government in Tuscaloosa, and the benefits to the city from the change.

CORSAIRS PLACE IN TOURNAMENT

The Corsairs, Shelton State fencing team, scored high in the Second Annual Sports Festival held recently at the University of Alabama in Birmingham student center.

The Corsairs brought home two gold, one silver, one bronze and a fourth place in the fencing events held at UAB.

Terry Walker captured a gold metal in the women's epee and saber and a silver in the women's foil.

In the Under 20 Division of the men's foil Jason Moore tied for first place but lost in the repechagen (fence-off), taking third place in the event.

HAPPY FOURTH OF JULY.....THERE WILL BE NO CLASSES THURSDAY BECAUSE OF THE HOLIDAY.

ARE YOU THE MISSING STUDENT?

Will the student who lost the money during summer registration come by the office of the Dean of Students. Your money has been found.

FOUNDATION NEWS

The Faculty/Staff Advisory Committee to the Shelton State Foundation met recently and junior college instructor Rosemary Galin was selected chairman of the committee. This committee will represent the personnel of the college in an advisory capacity to the Foundation. Specifically, the committee will work this summer to write a manual which will spell out Foundation policy and procedure. Members of the committee are: Betty Jennings, Dan Morris, Joyce Robinson, technical division, Bob Hagler, Alabama State Fire College; Linda Mason, Muriel Campbell, and Galin, junior college division. Arthur Howington, chairman of the policy and planning committee of the Foundation, and Lucy Kubiszyn, Foundation director, serve in an ex-officio capacity to the committee.
